

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Aid vs. Aide

Aid and aide sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Aid can be a noun or verb. As a noun it means help or support. As a verb it means to help or support.

Example 1: He will win with the aid of his friends.

Example 2: She came to aid of wounded soldier.

Aide is a noun meaning an assistant.

Example 1: The nurse's aide took the patient's temperature.

Choose aid or aide to complete each sentence.

1. The woman came to the cat's _____ when it was stuck in a tree.
2. The senator's _____ invited us to sit down.
3. Did you offer to _____ him in his research?
4. Dorie will be the teacher's _____ next week.
5. He will _____ us in our time of need.
6. The people would not have survived the flood without the _____ of the firemen.
7. The _____ defended the actions of the governor.
8. The traitor gave _____ to the enemy
9. The _____ to the president gave a long speech.
10. She had an _____ who took notes.

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Aid vs. Aide

Aid and aide sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Aid can be a noun or verb. As a noun it means help or support. As a verb it means to help or support.

Example 1: He will win with the aid of his friends.

Example 2: She came to aid of wounded soldier.

Aide is a noun meaning an assistant.

Example 1: The nurse's aide took the patient's temperature.

Choose aid or aide to complete each sentence.

1. The woman came to the cat's _____ aid _____ when it was stuck in a tree.
2. The senator's _____ aide _____ invited us to sit down.
3. Did you offer to _____ aid _____ him in his research?
4. Dorie will be the teacher's _____ aide _____ next week.
5. He will _____ aid _____ us in our time of need.
6. The people would not have survived the flood without the _____ aid _____ of the firemen.
7. The _____ aide _____ defended the actions of the governor.
8. The traitor gave _____ aid _____ to the enemy
9. The _____ aide _____ to the president gave a long speech.
10. She had an _____ aide _____ who took notes.