Remembering Abraham Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln was the 16th President of the United States. He was president during the Civil War, when the country tried to split in half. He kept the country together and won the war. He was killed in 1865. The people of the United States were very sad about his death.

He was greatly respected and loved. Since he died, Americans have put his picture on the penny and the $5 bill; named places after him; and built several monuments to him. The most famous monument is in Washington, D.C. It was finished in 1922, and many visitors go to see it every year.

In the box below, design your own memorial to Abraham Lincoln. It can be anything you like: a building or a thing. Just remember that it should be a way to remember this great president.
