

Spot the Prepositional Phrases

Circle all prepositional phrases in the following sentences.

1. He called me on Sunday to get the homework assignment.
2. Is your sister coming with us to the movie?
3. In other words, there was no chance they would come to the park.
4. Claire liked to sing on the way to school.
5. After the storm, the birds flew out of the barn.
6. The light on the front porch went out last week.
7. The boy ran up the stairs to speak to his friend.
8. The point of the lesson is that we should always pay attention.
9. Wash your hands in the kitchen before dinner.
10. The red car raced down the street towards the busy intersection.

Spot the Prepositional Phrases

Circle all prepositional phrases in the following sentences.

1. He called me on Sunday to get the homework assignment.
2. Is your sister coming with us to the movie?
3. In other words, there was no chance they would come to the park.
4. Claire liked to sing on the way to school.
5. After the storm, the birds flew out of the barn.
6. The light on the front porch went out last week.
7. The boy ran up the stairs to speak to his friend.
8. The point of the lesson is that we should always pay attention.
9. Wash your hands in the kitchen before dinner.
10. The red car raced down the street towards the busy intersection.