

Find It! Predicate Adjectives

Circle the number of the sentences that have a predicate adjective.

1. The cook tasted the icing and added some sugar.
2. She was happy to see me.
3. I became hungry when I smelled the soup.
4. The cow is sleeping in the barn.
5. His mother looked tired after her long walk.
6. Your sister has been playing all evening.
7. The marble vase felt cold when she touched it.
8. We saw a red bird in the park.
9. The water tasted salty in the ocean.
10. She felt her way through the dark hall.

Find It! Predicate Adjectives

Circle the number of the sentences that have a predicate adjective.

1. The cook tasted the icing and added some sugar.

2. She was happy to see me.

3. I became hungry when I smelled the soup.

4. The cow is sleeping in the barn.

5. His mother looked tired after her long walk.

6. Your sister has been playing all evening.

7. The marble vase felt cold when she touched it.

8. We saw a red bird in the park.

9. The water tasted salty in the ocean.

10. She felt her way through the dark hall.

