

Circle It! Complete Predicate

Circle the complete predicate in each sentence below.

1. He ran to the store yesterday.
2. I am happy you like your present.
3. The boy on the train looked out the window.
4. The mother smiled when her baby laughed.
5. They counted the number of cows in the field.
6. Tyra and Mark ate dinner with their parents.
7. The cat climbed a tree and slept on the branch.
8. When it's cold outside, we like to watch movies.
9. The clerk in the store swept the floor quickly.
10. On Monday, the school will have a concert for the students.

Circle It! Complete Predicate

Circle the complete predicate in each sentence below.

1. He ran to the store yesterday.
2. I am happy you like your present.
3. The boy on the train looked out the window.
4. The mother smiled when her baby laughed.
5. They counted the number of cows in the field.
6. Tyra and Mark ate dinner with their parents.
7. The cat climbed a tree and slept on the branch.
8. When it's cold outside, we like to watch movies.
9. The clerk in the store swept the floor quickly.
10. On Monday, the school will have a concert for the students.