

I have a dream...

Personal Narrative: Writing about your dream for the world.

Name: _____

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is remembered for his inspiring speeches to help promote civil rights. His most famous speech began, "I have a dream..." King spoke of his dream of a world where people were judged by their character instead of by their race. What is your dream? Write a personal narrative that tells about your dream for the world. What would you change, and why?
