

Latin and Greek Prefixes: Auto- and Cent-/Centi-

Many prefixes we use in English originally come from Greek or Latin words. The prefix auto- is from a Greek word meaning “same” or “self.” The prefix cent-/centi- is from a Latin word meaning “one hundred.” If you understand what the prefix means, it will help you understand the meaning of the whole word. For example, the root focus means “to make clear.” Combine auto- with focus, and it becomes the word autofocus. Based on its original meaning, autofocus means “self make clear” or making something clear with no assistance.

Use the list in the bank to make five different English words out of auto- and cent-/centi-. You may add a suffix or change the spelling a little if needed. Write a sentence for each word you make and circle the word you made with the prefix. Be sure to use words for both auto- and cent-/centi-.
