

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Pore vs. Pour vs. Poor

Pore, pour and poor sound very much alike. However they have completely different meanings.

Pore is sometimes a noun, meaning a small opening in skin or a small hole in a rock. In this meaning, it is often plural: pores. It may also be a verb meaning to read carefully or stare.

Example 1: After the race I was sweating from every pore in my body.

Example 2: She decided to pore through the letters to find a clue to the mystery.

Pour is a verb meaning to make something, like liquid, flow.

Example 1: The rain might pour down today.

Pore

Poor is often an adjective meaning pitiful, low quality or without wealth.

Example 1: The firemen tried to rescue the poor horse from the icy river.

Example 2: He turned in a poor report.

Example 3: The poor children wore rags.

Poor

Choose pore, pour or poor to complete each sentence.

1. He will _____ the punch.
2. They were very _____ .
3. He made a _____ grade on the test.
4. Albert must _____ over the book for hours to learn the lesson.
5. Will you please _____ me a drink?
6. The _____ kitten cried at the door.
7. Every _____ in the rock was plugged with dirt.
8. If the pipe breaks, the water will _____ into the room.
9. The king gave coins to the _____ people.
10. I like to _____ milk on my cereal.

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Pore vs. Pour vs. Poor

Pore, pour and poor sound very much alike. However they have completely different meanings.

Pore is sometimes a noun, meaning a small opening in skin or a small hole in a rock. In this meaning, it is often plural: pores. It may also be a verb meaning to read carefully or stare.

Example 1: After the race I was sweating from every pore in my body.

Example 2: She decided to pore through the letters to find a clue to the mystery.

Pour is a verb meaning to make something, like liquid, flow.

Example 1: The rain might pour down today.

Pore

Poor is often an adjective meaning pitiful, low quality or without wealth.

Example 1: The firemen tried to rescue the poor horse from the icy river.

Example 2: He turned in a poor report.

Example 3: The poor children wore rags.

Poor

Choose pore, pour or poor to complete each sentence.

1. He will _____ pour _____ the punch.
2. They were very _____ poor _____ .
3. He made a _____ poor _____ grade on the test.
4. Albert must _____ pore _____ over the book for hours to learn the lesson.
5. Will you please _____ pour _____ me a drink?
6. The _____ poor _____ kitten cried at the door.
7. Every _____ pore _____ in the rock was plugged with dirt.
8. If the pipe breaks, the water will _____ pour _____ into the room.
9. The king gave coins to the _____ poor _____ people.
10. I like to _____ pour _____ milk on my cereal.