

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Loose vs. Lose

Loose and lose sound just a little differently, but they have totally different meanings.

Loose is an adjective meaning not firm, not contained, or not tight.

Example 1: I like to wear loose clothing.

Lose is a verb meaning to misplace or no longer possess. It may also mean unsuccessful.

Example 1: Did you lose your phone?

Example 2: Their team will lose to ours.

Choose loose or lose to complete each sentence.

1. She has a _____ tooth.
2. Velma might _____ her tennis match.
3. Don't _____ your way in the forest.
4. There are a lot of _____ papers in the binder.
5. The brown dog was _____ in the neighborhood.
6. I will not _____ my temper.
7. My brothers _____ their house keys often.
8. They removed a _____ brick and found a gold coin.
9. The speaker will _____ everyone's attention if he doesn't speak louder.
10. The rock climber stepped on the _____ rocks and fell.

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Loose vs. Lose

Loose and lose sound just a little differently, but they have totally different meanings.

Loose is an adjective meaning not firm, not contained, or not tight.

Example 1: I like to wear loose clothing.

Lose is a verb meaning to misplace or no longer possess. It may also mean unsuccessful.

Example 1: Did you lose your phone?

Example 2: Their team will lose to ours.

Choose loose or lose to complete each sentence.

1. She has a _____ loose _____ tooth.
2. Velma might _____ lose _____ her tennis match.
3. Don't _____ lose _____ your way in the forest.
4. There are a lot of _____ loose _____ papers in the binder.
5. The brown dog was _____ loose _____ in the neighborhood.
6. I will not _____ lose _____ my temper.
7. My brothers _____ lose _____ their house keys often.
8. They removed a _____ loose _____ brick and found a gold coin.
9. The speaker will _____ lose _____ everyone's attention if he doesn't speak louder.
10. The rock climber stepped on the _____ loose _____ rocks and fell.