

Find the Subject Complement

Circle the number of the sentences which have a subject complement.

1. Mrs. McCoy is the best teacher at our school.
2. After they tasted the dish, both cooks agreed to discard it.
3. She was delighted you invited her to the party.
4. Everyone likes talking about themselves.
5. All in all, Vivian has been very helpful to the family.
6. The poodle became excited when its owner got its leash.
7. They are going outside when it stops raining.
8. He felt tired after so many hours at the gym.
9. The singer will be performing at the theater on Tuesday.
10. It was someone else who rang the doorbell.

Find the Subject Complement

Circle the number of the sentences which have a subject complement.

1. Mrs. McCoy is the best teacher at our school.
2. After they tasted the dish, both cooks agreed to discard it.
3. She was delighted you invited her to the party.
4. Everyone likes talking about themselves.
5. All in all, Vivian has been very helpful to the family.
6. The poodle became excited when its owner got its leash.
7. They are going outside when it stops raining.
8. He felt tired after so many hours at the gym.
9. The singer will be performing at the theater on Tuesday.
10. It was someone else who rang the doorbell.

