

Sentences: Pronouns as Adjectives

Circle each sentence number that has a pronoun used as an adjective.

1. I think that dog is theirs.
2. Do you know where your keys are?
3. The cat licked its paw by the fire.
4. The bicycle is better than mine.
5. He told himself everything would be better soon.
6. She gave her book to him.
7. You're very nice to help me.
8. The children ran to their mother.
9. It's getting late, and I should go.
10. Our uncle was late for dinner.

Sentences: Pronouns as Adjectives

Circle each sentence number that has a pronoun used as an adjective.

1. I think that dog is theirs.

2. Do you know where your keys are?

3. The cat licked its paw by the fire.

4. The bicycle is better than mine.

5. He told himself everything would be better soon.

6. She gave her book to him.

7. You're very nice to help me.

8. The children ran to their mother.

9. It's getting late, and I should go.

10. Our uncle was late for dinner.