

Name: _____

For Thanksgiving: Add the Nouns and Adjectives

The sentences below are missing some nouns and adjectives. For each sentence, fill in the blanks with one word from the noun column and one word from the adjective column. Use a word only once. You can make funny sentences or serious sentences!

Nouns

turkey	flower
Pilgrim	dinner
pie	dog
guest	pumpkin
neighbor	chair
boy	balloon
girl	crowd
friend	family

Adjectives

plump	friendly
happy	silly
yummy	special
young	green
pretty	orange
ugly	holiday
fun	large
Thanksgiving	hungry

The _____ was on the dining table.

Her mother roasted a _____ in the oven.

We played football with the _____.

The _____ parade had a large _____.

Jane was a _____ to our _____ party.

His _____ cousin came from Chicago to eat _____.

Name: _____

For Thanksgiving: Add the Nouns and Adjectives

The sentences below are missing some nouns and adjectives. For each sentence, fill in the blanks with one word from the noun column and one word from the adjective column. Use a word only once. You can make funny sentences or serious sentences!

Nouns

turkey	flower
Pilgrim	dinner
pie	dog
guest	pumpkin
neighbor	chair
boy	balloon
girl	crowd
friend	family

Adjectives

plump	friendly
happy	silly
yummy	special
young	green
pretty	orange
ugly	holiday
fun	large
Thanksgiving	hungry

Actual wording of answers will vary. Examples of correct answers:

The silly dog was on the dining table.

Her mother roasted a yummy turkey in the oven.

We played football with the fun neighbor.

The Thanksgiving parade had a large Pilgrim.

Jane was a guest to our holiday party.

His silly cousin came from Chicago to eat dinner.