

Latin and Greek Prefixes: Dis- and Retro-

Many prefixes we use in English originally come from Greek or Latin words. The prefix dis- is from a Latin word meaning “apart,” “away” or “not.” The prefix retro- is from a Latin word meaning “back” or “backwards.” If you understand what the prefix means, it will help you understand the meaning of the whole word. For example, the root trust means “confidence” or “belief.” Combine dis- with trust, and it becomes the word distrust. Based on its original meaning, distrust means “not confidence” or not having confidence in another person or thing.

Use the list in the bank to make five different English words out of dis- and retro-. You may add a suffix or change the spelling a little if needed. Write a sentence for each word you make and circle the word you made with the prefix. Be sure to use words for both dis- and retro-.
