

Phrases: Object of the Preposition

Every prepositional phrase has a preposition and a word that is the object of the preposition.

Example: over the rainbow

The preposition is over.

The object of the preposition is rainbow.

Notice that the object does not include the modifier the.

Below are prepositional phrases. Underline the object of the preposition in each phrase. Write the preposition under each phrase.

1. under the bed

6. of our family

2. out the window

7. near Jones Park

3. to Fred

8. on a large outdoor bench

4. beyond the distant hills

9. with her two best friends

5. from Carrie's sister

10. in the boy's backpack

Phrases: Object of the Preposition

Every prepositional phrase has a preposition and a word that is the object of the preposition.

Example: over the rainbow

The preposition is over.

The object of the preposition is rainbow.

Notice that the object does not include the modifier the.

Below are prepositional phrases. Underline the object of the preposition in each phrase. Write the preposition under each phrase.

1. under the bed

under

6. of our family

of

2. out the window

out

7. near Jones Park

near

3. to Fred

to

8. on a large outdoor bench

on

4. beyond the distant hills

beyond

9. with her two best friends

with

5. from Carrie's sister

from

10. in the boy's backpack

in