Name: _____

Latin and Greek Prefixes: Non- and Quad-

Many prefixes we use in English originally come from Greek or Latin words. The prefix non- is from Latin meaning "not." The prefix quad-/quadri-/quadra- is from a Latin word meaning "four." If you understand what the prefix means, it will help you understand the meaning of the whole word. For example, the root verbal means "having to do with words." Combine non- with verbal, and it becomes the word nonverbal. Based on its original meaning, nonverbal means "not having to do with words" or communication without words.

Use the list in the bank to make five different English words out of non- and quad-/quadri-/quadra-. You may add a suffix or change the spelling a little if needed. Write a sentence for each word you make and circle the word you made with the prefix. Be sure to use words for both non- and quad-/quadri-/quadra- .
